M'KENNEY. History of the Indian Tribes of North America, with Biographical Sketches and Anecdotes of the Principal Chiefs. Embellished with One Hundred and Twenty Portraits from the Indian Gallery in the Department of War, at Washington. By Thomas L. M'Kenney, late of the Indian Department, Washington, and James Hall, Esq., of Cincinnati. Philadelphia: Edward C. Biddle. 1836-44. 3 vols., folio. 43410a

Collation: Vol. i. pp. (2), iv, 204, 48 Portraits; Vol. ii. Philadelphia: Frederick W. Greenough ... 1838. pp. (2), 237, 48 Portraits; Vol. iii. Philadelphia: Daniel Rice and James G. Clark. 1844. pp. (4), 196, (2), List of Subscribers, (22). 24 Portraits.

These are the imprints of the first issue, which was printed in 20 parts, and having been published by three several proprietors there is some confusion in the arrangement. In binding a set great care is necessary to secure accuracy, and the tables of plates should be consulted. The first 44 pages of the history (as distinguished from the biography) were issued in Parts i., ii., and iii.; then the biography commences. The catch-words at the foot of the signatures of the third volume up to No. 39 read Vol. 1. instead of Vol. III.; the error is corrected at the 40th sheet. The work was also issued with the imprint Philadelphia: Frederick W. Greenough. 1838-44. 3 vols., folio, pp. 4, 206, (1); 237, (1); (2), 196, (2), facsimiles, 18, (1). 120 Plates and Portraits. As early as 1824, the practice was begun of taking portraits of the principal Indians who came to Washington, and depositing them in the War Department. They were chiefly painted by Mr. King, an artist of high repute, who has been remarkably successful in transferring to his canvas the strong lineaments of the Indian countenance. Col. M'Kinney, who was for many years superintendent of Indian affairs at Washington, and was thus brought in constant association with the principal men of the nations and tribes which sent representatives to the seat of government, conceived the plan of making this rare and curious collection more valuable to the world by publishing a series of engraved portraits exactly copied and colored from these paintings. With each portrait is connected a biographical sketch of the individual whom it is intended to represent, interspersed with anecdotes and narrations. The work contains also a historical account of the various Indian tribes within the borders of the United States. See also "N. A. Rev.," XLVII. 134, LXIII. 481, and Rich, II. 307.

First and finest edition of the earliest expedition made by a white man in this direction. His investigations, although pursued at so early a period of Arctic exploration, were remarkable for their accuracy; Sir John Franklin more than once expressed his surprise at being able to corroborate their correctness in his own explorations. Some Indian vocabularies are included. "Of the vast region to which our Sovereign recently attached the name of British Columbia geographers have as yet but a scant and very imperfect account. Its first great explorer was my honoured countryman Mackenzie, who, traversing the Rocky Mountains and reaching the sea after incredible labour, left us an excellent record of his exploits."—SIR R. I. MURCHISON'S Address to Rl. Geog. Soc., May 23, 1859. See also "Edinb. Rev.," 1. 141, "M. Rev.," xxxviii. 225, 337, Rich, II. p. 1, and Twiss' "Oregon," p. 11.

Scarce. The author defends Lord Cornwallis, and is very severe on Lieut. Col. The account of the siege of Ninety Six and the capture of New Providence is by Lieut. Hatton. See Rich, 1. 338, "European Magazine," for 1788, Hanger's "Reply," and Tarleton (B.)

A volume of extraordinary rarity, curiosity, and interest, written in a pure, simple, and elegant style by an author who resided for many years in Brazil. He is the first if not the only Portuguese writer who has attempted to delineate the peculiar characteristics of the natives of Brazil. The work is so scarce that it is rarely cited by the Portuguese authors in Brazil; not even Vasconcelos, who teems with citations, mentions it, neither does Southey. In Pinelo's "Bibliotheca Oriental y Occidental," col. 673, a work very sparing of commendation, it is styled "Curiosa y Unica." Further interesting particulars occur in Machado's "Bibl. Lusitana," under Pedro de Magalhanes, and in the "Catalogue des Auteurs," prefixed to Vol. I. of the Dictionary of the Portuguese Academy, Lisboa, 1793. Davila, "Teatro das Grandezas de Madrid," entitles this work "Muy erudita y curiosa," p. 504; see also Ternaux, No. 121. Thorp priced a copy in 1835 at £15 15s; Quaritch gave £27 for a copy. There are not over two copies in the United States. There is no English version. Its value and importance suggested to Mr. Ternaux the propriety of including it in his "Relations et Memoires" under the following title:

The map of the World represents the whole of the South of the Globe, as occupied by "Terra Australis nondum cognita," excepting "Terra del Fuego," which forms part of it. This is repeated in the chart "ad Usum Navigantium," with the addition of mountain ranges. The description of America occupies twenty-five pages; but no mention is made of the then English possessions, though Canada ("Nova Francia") occupies eight lines. The Spanish and Portuguese territories, including the West Indies, occupy the rest of the space. "The various plates in which the New World is represented, do not show so much correction in the form of that continent as appears in the final edition of Ortelius, published in 1592, but adhere rather to the earlier types of the Antwerp geographer."—QUARITCH. A | Narrative | Of a New and Unusual | American Imprisonment, of | Two Presbyterian Ministers, and | Prosecution | of | Mr. Francis Makemie | One of Them, | For Preaching One Sermon in the City of | New-York. | By a Learner of Law, and Lover of Liberty. | New-York: Re-printed and Sold by H. Gaine, ... 1755. 4to, pp. (12), 52. P., W. 44080

Edited by the author of the "Watch Tower;" with an Epistle Dedicatory. The arrest took place 1706-7 for a violation of the laws, and was now reprinted to serve a political end and to influence the public mind. It is also reprinted in Force's "Tracts," Vol. IV., No. 4.

[MAKEMIE.] A Plain and Friendly Perswasive [sic] to the Inhabitants of Virginia and Maryland, for promoting Towns and Cohabitation. By a Well-wisher to both Governments. London: Printed by John Humfreys. 1705. 4to, pp. 16. H. 44081

MAKEMIE. Truths in a True Light, or a Pastoral Letter to the Reformed Protestants in Barbados. By Francis Makemie. Edinburgh. 1699. 16mo. W. 44082

A very rare piece. Makemie also published about 1707, "Forget and Forgive," a Jersey paper, for which Lord Cornbury persecuted him, unjustly perhaps. "The Jersey Paper" of February, 1707, remarks "Colonel Morris and Jennings, with two or three others, had been very hard at work in hatching the most scandalous paper I ever saw in my life." It abused Lord Cornbury, and was widely dispersed.

There are those who still believe in the genuineness of this spurious voyage of Maldonado in 1588, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and it is not impossible that Parliament may again be asked to subsidize with £20,000 or more a British ship, as it has done not very long ago, to re-find the passage.

With some Observations thereon, and Extracts from Sacred and Prophane, Ancient and Modern History, confirming the same; and their return from thence about the time of the return of the Jews. By Robert Ingram, A.M. ... London: G. G. J. & J. Robinson. 1792. 8vo, pp. 56. + Colchester. 1792. 8vo.

"Mr. Ingram believes that great numbers of the Israelites, after their dispersion, retired into a remote and uninhabited country, which he supposes to have been to the south of Hudson's Bay, and near California, between 53° and 60° N. lat., where their descendants, a numerous and distinct race, remain to this day, unconnected with the rest of mankind. All the difficulties in this long journey by sea and land are removed by the aid of miracles, of which the rev. author is not sparing. He has, however, used great diligence in examining and applying the Jewish prophecies, and other authorities, in support of his opinion, and of the evidence of Rabbi Manasseh."—Monthly Review.

Manual de Adultos [of which only the last leaves are known, bearing the following termination:] Imprimiose este Manual de Adultos en la gran ciudad de Mexico por mandado de los Rev. Señores Obispos de la Nueva España y a sus expensas: en casa de Juan Cromberger. Año del nacimiento de nuestro Señor Jesu Christo de mil y quinientos y quarenta. A xiiij dias del mes de Deziembre. 4to.

These fragments formed part of a volume in the Biblioteca Provincial of Toledo, from which they suddenly disappeared. They were accidentally discovered by Señor Don. Pascual de Gayangos at a book-stall in London in 1870, and purchased by him. Mr. HARRISSE, in the additions to his "Bib. Americana Vetus," No. 123, has given a facsimile of a portion of one of the leaves, being a series of verses; and of the colophon on the last leaf. There is a table of errata which refers to almost every page, and as the list ends with the thirty-sixth leaf, to which the two leaves in question should be added, Mr. HARRISSE is of opinion that the book consisted of thirty-eight leaves. It is certainly a work of the greatest rarity, and the discovery of a perfect copy will be an interesting addition to the history of printing in Mexico.

The travels of Marco Polo in the East claim a place in an American collection in consequence of the remarks of distinguished geographers that they were perused by Columbus, and that the revelations made by him of the wonders of Cathay and Zipanga stimulated the great navigator to accomplish through the sea, what the Venetian traveler had by land. We purposely omit the very numerous editions and translations of the work.

In Field's "Essay" this work is eulogized in the glowing style peculiar to that gentleman. As a book of wood-cuts it is interesting, as a book of authorship it is a capital illustration of the use of a pair of scissors. The work of Mr. E. G. Squier furnished the author with a large proportion of the text, and Mr. Squier is a good authority. Some copies of the translation have a New York imprint.

"With the Charter of the Society and an account of its proceedings 1776-77. Above one hundred missionaries were scattered throughout the American Colonies at the breaking out of the Revolution. The report of their proceedings in 1776 reads strangely now: 'In July last, the Congress thought proper to make an explicit declaration of independence by which all connection with Great Britain was to be broken off, and the Americans released from any alliance to our gracious Sovereign.' ... To officiate publicly, and not pray for the king ... was against their duty and oath, ... therefore almost all of them shut up their churches."—STEVENS. See also [Maseres (Francis)].

A politico-juridical treatise on commercial law. It is one of those books whose importance is by no means indicated by the title, and is of interest for the history of the Swedish South Company and its settlement in Pennsylvania. It contains an exact reprint of the extremely scarce first edition of the "Argonautica Gustaviana," published by W. Usselinckx in 1633. The original editions of some documents reprinted in this collection are lost. For an analysis and for a table of contents, see Asher's "Bibliographical Essay," pp. 83-84 and 93-96.

There is perhaps no more important source for the history of America than the great collection of Martens. The colonies in the New World were, up to a very recent date, considered by the European powers as a kind of property that might be obtained, transferred and exchanged almost with equal facility as any description of movable goods. Every great war between European states led therefore to some changes in the colonies. Even in time of peace many sales and exchanges were concluded, besides the still more numerous commercial treaties in which the colonies were concerned. The deeds of all these transactions are laid down in the collection of Martens.

The "Epistola Dedicatoria," 2 leaves, is sometimes inserted from the edition dated 1612. Its date is uncertain; White Kennett, a good authority, places it at 1597, Rich gives the date as 1612. It is, in fact, the same edition as our Nos. 1563-64, with another title, and from the fact that the "Epistola Dedicatoria" is not usually found with it, we incline to the belief that it is even later than 1628. The change of title was merely a publisher's trick. In noticing this edition T. W. Field remarks "The name of the author of this work was Pietro Martir, of Anghiera, in Milan, a name which he latinized into Angleria. There is no more warrant for styling him Anglerius than Milanoise. He is recognized by all Spanish writers by his patronymic, anglicized to Peter Martyr." Our answer to which is that Brunet and other authorities of far more repute than Mr. Field, index him under the name "Anghiera."

The Body of Liberties. Cambridge: Printed by John Daye. 1641. Folio. 45652

It contained one hundred laws drawn up by Rev. Nathl Ward of Ipswich, pursuant to an order of the General Court. See Thomas' "History of Printing," i. 47, note. Mr. Thomas is probably mistaken in supposing that "The Body of Liberties," established in 1641, was printed at that time. A pamphlet, entitled "An Abstract of the Laws of New England," was printed in London in 1641, and has by many writers been supposed to be substantially the same as "The Body of Liberties." There is good reason to believe that the last named compilation was published by distribution to the towns in manuscript. One of these copies, discovered by Mr. Francis C. Gray, and accompanied by his learned essay on the early Laws of Massachusetts Bay, was printed in the "Massachusetts Historical Collections," Third Series, Vol. viii.

The | Book of the General | Lawes and Libertyes | concerning the Inhabitants of the | Massachusetts, | collected Out of the Records of | the General Court, | for the several Years | wherein they were made and | Established. | And Now Revised by the same Court, and disposed into an | Alphabetical order, and published by the same | Authority in the General Court holden | at Boston, in May, | 1649. | ... | Cambridge: | Printed according to

Order of the General Court. | 1660. | Folio, pp. (4), 88, Table, (8).

Of extreme rarity. The preface is signed, "By Order of the Generall Court, Edward Rawson, Secret:" It was printed by Samuel Green. The earliest volume of Massachusetts Laws extant. An edition is supposed to have been printed in 1648 or 1649, but there is no known copy in existence. It is referred to in the "Massachusetts Records" of May, 1648, as "now at the presse." See "Massachusetts Records," II. pp. 239, 246, 262. Johnson, in "Wonder Working Providence," p. 205, says it was printed in 1648. Its discovery would be a bibliographical wonder.

General Lavves of the Massachusetts Colony. Revised and Published by Order of the General Court, October, 1658. [n. p. n. d.] Folio. 45741

The General | Laws | And | Liberties | Of the | Massachusetts | Colony: | Revised & Re-printed, | By Order of the General Court Holden at Boston | May 15th. 1672. | Edward Rawson, Secr. | ... | Cambridge | Printed by Samuel Green, for John Vsher of Boston. | 1672. | Folio, pp. (2), 170, Summary, 14 leaves, Several Laws, pp. 15, 19-21, 41-43, 49-59. Woodcut Coat of Arms, 1 leaf.

The collation of the several laws varies in the few copies known to exist. Thomas devotes a couple of pages to this important book, and relates that it "produced the first instance in America of the security of copyright by law." Usher having obtained permission to print the edition, and "suspecting that Green might print additional copies for himself, or that Johnson, at Cambridge, would reprint from his copy," at his request "two laws were passed to secure to him this particular work." Thomas adds copies of those laws, the second of which extended the right for seven years. See "History of Printing," 1. 248-9, and new edition, 1. 71.

Title from Thomas' "History of Printing," probably the same as the foregoing. The catalogue of the Worcester Antiquarian Society describes an edition dated 1675, which is probably an error as to date.

This valuable collection of important documents, relating to the history of America, is issued in series of ten volumes each. Some of the earlier volumes [I., II., III., IV., V., XVII., XVIII., XIX., XX.] have become scarce, and some others have been reprinted. Of course it is desirable to secure a set of the original edition. Mr. Bartlett's catalogue of J. C. Brown's library contains a detailed list of the contents. The last volume of each series contains a general table of contents of the series and an index of authors, a chronological table of the most remarkable events recorded in the text and a general analytical index. The fifth series is now (1879) in course of publication. See "N. A. Rev.," II. 109, XLIV. 260, LVII. 352, etc.

The Militia Act; together with the Rules and Regulations for the Militia. ... Boston: Printed by J. Gill. 1776. 4to. 45924

This famous Militia Act of Massachusetts was passed at Watertown in 1775, after the Battles of Lexington and Bunker's Hill, when the General Court had been expelled from Boston by the British Army, and were just in the grieved spirit to cause them to do the work thoroughly. Appended are the 69 Articles of War, passed the 16th of April, 1776, signed by Warren, as Speaker, concurred in by the Council two days later, the very reading of which, it is said, made patriots into soldiers.

This deposition of Secretary Oliver was inserted in a pamphlet entitled "A Fair Account of the late unhappy Disturbances at Boston," which was made up from depositions of a large number of persons, with a view to prove that the firing of the soldiers upon their assailants, if not wholly unavoidable, was at least excusable. MASSIE. A State of the British Sugar-Colony Trade; shewing, That an Additional Duty of Twelve Shillings per 112 Pounds Weight may be laid upon Brown or Muscovado Sugar (and proportionably higher Duties upon Sugar refined before imported) without making Sugar dearer in this Kingdom than it hath been of late Years, and without Distressing the British Sugar-Planters; for their Profits will then be Twice as much Money per acre of Land, as the Landholders of England receive for their Estates. All which Matters are plainly made appear, and the vast losses which this Kingdom hath suffered by the Sugar-Colony Trade, written Thirty Years last past, are particularly pointed out. In the preparation of the following list of works by the Mather family, I am under special obligations to Mr. J. A. Lewis, of Boston, who has made their collection a specialty; also to Dr. J. H. Trumbull, of Hartford, Conn. The titles which are obviously imperfect are mostly taken from Thomas' "History of Printing," second edition; a few are from Samuel Mather's List of his father's books, which is a very untrustworthy source, and probably includes some works never printed.

MATHER (A.) Good Rulers a choice Blessing. A Sermon ... before the ... General Assembly of ... Connecticut, at Hartford, ... May 12th, 1725. The Day for the Election of the ... Governour By Azariah Mather, A.M. ... New London: T. Green. 1725. 8vo, pp. (2), 50. H. 46207

At the end, pp. 37-42, "Instructions for Children," in verse, including "The Body of Divinity Versified." Very rare. Mr. Brinley had the only known copy.

those who are | Learning to sing by Rule Boston: Printed by B. Green, for S. Gerrish, | ... 1721. 16mo, pp. (4), 24. H. 46212

One of the rarest of Cotton Mather's tracts; no copy, as far as the writer knows, having occurred for sale in this country. Mather remarks: "It has been found in some of our congregations, that in length of time, their singing has degenerated into an odd noise, that has had more of what we want a name for than any regular singing in it; whereby the Celestial Exercise is dishonoured; and indeed the Third Commandment is trespassed upon."

[MATHER.] An Account of the Method and further Success of Inoculating for the Small Pox in London. Boston. 1714. 8vo.

"Liberavi Animam Meam," says Mather, by way of Finis. Doubtless it was a great comfort to him, to "free his mind," about the "Infamous Rum" which was "the usual Entertainment of a Friend at our Houses," the "Flood of Strong Drink," the too great frequency of "Games of Hazard, such as Cards and Dice, among our Children" [in Boston!]; "Christmas-Revels, beginning to be taken up;" the "diversions at many Weddings—improved into such Revels, as are not well consistent with the Sobriety of Christianity;" the "very common usage" of Drinking Healths, "even among professors of our Holy Religion," and the whole "Black List of some Evil Customes which begin to appear among us."—Brinley Catalogue.

“Hereby hangs a funny tale. About the year 1714, Cotton Mather in Boston was dubbed with F.R.S., a trinity of capitals which flattering his vanity he adopted and wore, though somewhat against his previous teachings in regard to worldly distinctions. The first of his 383 books that came out after the receipt of this polished handle bore F.R.S. after his name, much to the astonishment of his rivals, and amusement of his fellow citizens. He immediately wrote to the Secretary of the Royal Society thanking him, and continued through life to be an active correspondent, all but the first letter being still preserved by the Society. The letter of thanks, however, for some reason never got among the records, but eventually fell among autograph-mongers, and found its way to New York. Some, in the Doctor's lifetime, said he had been hoaxed, and never was really elected, while others, and among them his son, manfully contended that he was really one of the Philosophers. This book was written during the controversy to show that he was both competent and willing to be an F.R.S. To this day the question is not settled—Was Cotton Mather an F.R.S.? There is nothing in the Society's records to show it, though the names of a dozen other Americans are recorded.”—STEVENS.

This extremely rare and curious poem abounds in extravagant hyperbole, though by no means remarkable for poetic talent. The following lines are a fair specimen :

“ There,
 Grov’ling in ashes, with dishev’led hair,
 Smiting her breast, black’d with a mourning aress,
 Resembling mother Sion in distress ;
Pitty, the Church of Middletown bespeaks
Set in the midst of swoons and sobs and sbricks.
 With Bowells full of it I hastned to
 The Wet place, asking wby sbe grieved so ?
 And had this Answer :
 Sir, ask you this ? Are you a Sojourner
 Within New-England’s bounds and know not wby ?
 I’ve lost great COLLINS, man ! O that, O there,
 From this Tears-Fountain is my misery.”

Gospel" (No. 46244), the first work named in Samuel Mather's list. Mr. Brinley's is the only known copy, and is believed to be unique. In May, 1683, Nathanael

Some copies have the prospectus "Proposals|For Printing by|Subscription|Psalterium Americanum," etc., pp. 7. "In this singular publication, which is a close translation of the Hebrew, Dr. Mather has not only disregarded the modern practice of breaking the lines, whether rhymed or not, but he has run out (to use a printer's phrase) the whole matter; so that while each psalm looks exactly like prose, and may be read as such, it is, in fact, modulated so that it may be sung as lyric verse. The learned Doctor says that in the 'twice seven versions' which he has seen, the authors 'put in as large an Heap of poor Things, which, are intirely their own,—meerly for the sake of preserving the Clink of the Rhyme; Which after all is of small consequence unto a Generous Poem; and of none at all unto the Melody of Singing.'"

"One of the very rarest of Mather's works. The title is not in S. Mather's list, nor in any library catalogue which has been consulted. It seems to be the second edition, with additions and change of title, of 'The Man of God furnished with Supplies from the Tower of David,' named by S. Mather, under the year 1706 (No. 46396). Of the Seven Essays, the first, entitled 'The Fall of Babylon,' was appended to

'Frontiers well Defended,' printed in 1707 (No. 46332), with a prefatory note headed 'The Protestant Armed from the Tower of David.' At the end of the volume is 'The Body of Divinity Versified' (2 pp.), which was (first?) printed in 'Maschil,' 1702 (No. 46403). 'An Addition,' pp. 91-95, contains 'A Short Catechism for the Conscience, on the Condition of Ungospellized Plantations.'—J. H. TRUMBULL.

Very rare. In S. Mather's list the date is 1702; Dr. Trumbull says that "may be the date of the first edition."

MATHER. The Wonderful Works of God | Commemorated. | Praises | Bespoke for the God of Heaven, | In a Thanksgiving | Sermon; | Delivered on Decemb. 19. 1689. | Containing | Just Reflections upon the Excel- | lent Things done by the Great God, | more Generally in Creation and Re- | demption, and in the Govern- | ment of the World; But more Par- | ticularly in the Remarkable Revolu- | tions of Providence which are every | where the Matter of present Observation. | With a Postscript giving an Account of some very | stupendous Accidents, which have lately happened | in France. | By Cotton Mather. | To which is Added a Sermon Preached unto the | Convention of the Massachusetts Colony in | New-England. | With a short Narrative of several Prodigies, which New- | England hath of late had the Alarms of Heaven in. | Printed at Boston by S. Green. & Sold by Joseph | Browning at the corner of the Prison Lane and | Benj. Harris at the London Coffee-House. 1690. Sm. 8vo, pp. (8), 62, 7, 26 [36], 5, 7. B.
+ Second Edition. Boston. 1703. 46602

The Convention Sermon has a separate title-page and paging; see "The Way to Prosperity," No. 46591, supra. The appendix (and its introductory "Mantissa") "touching Prodigies in New-England," are also separately paged. Some of the prodigies narrated are very striking: "In the summer of the year 1688, just before the first eruption of our unhappy War, we had growing in Boston a Cabbage-Root, out of which there sprouted three very wonderful Branches, one of them exactly resembling a Curtlace [Cutlass], another of them as exactly resembling a Rapier, and a third, extremely like to the Club used by the Indians in their barbarous Executions. I was myself one among the many who visited this Curiosity." This work of Mather's is of peculiar interest, as containing (in the dedicatory epistle to Sir Henry Ashurst) a copy, cut in wood or type metal, of a portion of the famous Dighton Rock Inscription.

MATHER. The Wonders of the Invisible World. | Observations | As well Historical as Theological, upon the Nature, the | Number, and the Operations of the | Devils. | Accompany'd with, | I. Some Accounts of the Grievous Molestations, by Dæ- | mons and Witchcrafts, which have lately | annoy'd the Countrey; and the Trials of some eminent | Malefactors Executed upon occasion thereof: with several | Remarkable Curiosities therein occurring. | II. Some Counsils, Directing a due Improvement of the ter- | rible things, lately done, by the Unusual & Amazing | Range of Evil Spirits, in Our Neighbourhood: & | the methods to prevent the Wrongs which those Evil | Angels may intend against all sorts of people among us: | especially in Accusations of the Innocent. | III. Some Conjectures upon the great Events, likely | to befall, the World in General, and New-En-gland in Particular; as also upon the Advances of | the Time, when we shall see Better Dayes. | iv. Phillips.* 1693. | Sm. 8vo, pp. (32), 151, (1), 32 [24].

B. 46603

Of all works by the Mathers, this is probably the rarest; it is, perhaps, also one of the most important, as exhibiting the prevalence of the delusion which at that time infected New England.

MATHER. *The Wonders of the Invisible World: | Being an Account of the | Tryals | of Several Witches, | Lately Executed in | New-England: | And of several remarkable Curiosities therein Occurring. | Together with, | I. Very rare. This is the first and only complete London edition. The last page is numbered 98, but the pagination is irregular, the number of pages being, in fact, 106, exclusive of the four preliminary pages not numbered. A leaf preceding the title, has the half-title: "The | Tryals | of | Several Witches, | Lately Executed in | New-England; | Published by the | Special Command of the Governour;" and, on the verso, is the "Imprimatur. Dec. 23. 1693. Edmund Bohun."

The address "To the Church and Inhabitants of Northampton" (pp. 5), in the first edition, and the letter "To the Reader" (pp. 2), in the second, are by Increase Mather. Both editions of the work are very rare.

[MATHER.] The | Answer | Of Several | Ministers | in and near | Boston, | To that Case of Conscience, | Whether it is Lawful for a Man | to Marry his Wives own Sister? | Boston in N. E. | Printed and Sold by Bartholomew Green. 1695. Sm. 8vo, pp. 8, (1). C.

The "Answer" is signed by Increase Mather, Charles Morton, James Allen, Samuel Willard, James Sherman, John Danforth, Cotton Mather, Nehemiah Walter; and is against such marriages. It is followed by an obituary notice of Mrs. Judith Hull, which may be a separate publication, and is probably by Cotton Mather.

[MATHER.] An Arrow | against | Profane and Promiscuous | Dancing. | Drawn out of the Quiver of the | Scriptures. | By the Ministers of Christ at Boston | in New-England. | Boston: Printed by Samuel Green 1684. Sm. 8vo, pp. 30. M. 46632

In November, 1684, the Ministers of Boston "come to the Court and complain against a Dancing Master [Mr. Francis Stepney] who seeks to set up here, and hath mixt Dances, and his time of meeting is Lecture-Day, and 'tis reported he should say that by one Play he could teach more Divinity than Mr. Willard or the Old Testament. Mr. Moody said 'twas not a time for N. E. to dance. Mr. Mather struck at the Root, speaking against mixt Dances."—SEWALL'S Diary. "Mr. Stepney was ordered not to keep a dancing school. Disregarding the prohibition, in February, 1685-6, he was prosecuted and fined £100, for 'speaking blasphemous words,' but the payment of all but £10, was remitted on condition that he should leave Boston before the last of March. Just then, a second impression of the 'Arrow against Dancing' was published." —BRINLEY Catalogue. I am unable to find any other account of the second edition.

One of the most rare of Increase Mather's pieces. The preface to the first edition is signed "T. P." It has been erroneously attributed to John Cotton. See "Some Remarks on a Pretended Answer," infra, in which Mather acknowledges the authorship, and points out an error in the spelling of a Hebrew word. For a reply, see [Williams (J.)]

MATHER. A | Brief History | of the | Warr | With the Indians in | New-England. | (From June 24, 1675. when the first English-man was murdered by the Indians, to August 12, 1676. when Philip, aliàs | Metacomet, the principal Author and Beginner | of the Warr, was slain.) | Wherein the Grounds, Beginning, and Progress of the Warr, | is summarily expressed. | Together with a serious | Exhortation | to the Inhabitants of that Land, | By Increase Mather, Teacher of a Church of | Christ, in Boston in New-England. | ... | Boston. Printed and Sold by John Foster over | against the Sign of the Dove. 1676. 4to, pp. (6), 51, (8); (4), 26. 46640

"An Earnest Exhortation" has a separate title-page and paging. Mather was stimulated to this literary labor by the knowledge that his reverend brother, Wm. Hubbard, was engaged upon a similar work. Indeed, the two treatises were probably almost simultaneously passing through the press of John Foster. Mr. Drake observes: "When it is considered that the war was not ended until the autumn of 1676, the year in which it was printed, it must be apparent to every reader that the work was a hurried performance." In his preface, Mather exhibits a little trace of acerbity, when he asserts, "This following relation was written neer upon a year ago; since which a reverend author hath emitted a narrative of the troubles which happened by the Indians: ... nevertheless ... most of the things here insisted on, are not so much as once taken notice of in that narrative." Of this exceedingly rare book two copies only are known: Mr. Brinley's and one in England. The following is a reprint:

MATHER. A Brief | History | of the | War | with the | Indians | in | New-England. | From June 24. 1675. (when the first English-man was Murder- | ed by the Indians) to August 12. 1676. when Philip, | alias Metacomet, the principal Author and | Beginner of the War, was slain. | Wherein the Grounds, Beginning, and Progress of the War, is summarily | expressed. Together with a serious Exhortation to the | Inhabitants of that Land. | By Increase Mather, Teacher of a Church of | Christ, in Boston in New-England. | ... | London, Printed for Richard Chiswell, at the Rose and Crown in St. Pauls | Church-Yard, according to the Original Copy Printed | in New-England. 1676. 4to, pp. (8), 51, (1), 8. c.

The half-title reads: "The Wars of New-England." The "Serious Exhortation," though named in the title, is not given in this edition. The preface refers to John Eliot as "this now aged servant of the Lord." Extremely rare. For a modern reprint, see "History," infra.

A second title-page precedes the text with the imprint: London, Printed for John Allen in Wentworth-street, near Bell-Lane, 1669. This is the first work by its celebrated author, and is very rare. Rice's copy sold, in 1870, for $22. "Isaiah Thomas ('Hist. of Printing,' I. 286) says: 'There is in an ancient library in Boston, a copy of Increase Mather's Mystery of Israel's Libation [sic] printed in London, by John Allen. It is supposed he came to Boston by encouragement from the Mathers.' But Allen's name does not appear on the first title-page, and on the second the imprint is 'for'—not as Thomas has it—by Allen. The work may have been printed by Green at Cambridge, and some copies may have been provided with a special title-page for the London market. It is certain that both title-pages were printed from the same types.'"— imprint reads : Boston. Printed by B. Green and J. Allen, for B. Elliot. The London reprint is very rare. It is not in Mr. Sibley's list.

M[ATHER ?] The | Original | Rights | Of | Mankind | Freely to
Subdue and Improve the | Earth. | Asserted and Maintained | By I.
M. | Boston : For the Author. 1722. 12mo, pp. 22. 46715

"Attributed to Mather, in the Am. Antiq. Society (Haven's) catalogue, and by Mr.
Sibley (No. 157), on the authority of a copy on which I. M. is extended to 'I. Mather, D.D.' in a nearly contemporary hand-writing. Mr. Brinley's copy is so inscribed, and is probably the one to which Mr. Sibley refers. The main argument of the tract is, that 'Monopolizing dormant lands subjects the Colony to Slavery,' and that all 'dormant (unimproved) Lands ought to be Taxed for the support of government,' and it appeals to the General Assembly to 'undo heavy Burdens, break every Yoke, make us a free People, to Enjoy without Price or Purchase what God hath freely given us,' &c. It is extremely rare. If by Mather (which seems very doubtful) it is the last work (independently) published by him."—J. H. TRUMBULL.

C., M. 46726

A very rare work. The "Historical Discourse" (No. 46692, supra,) appears to have been printed before the "Troubles," the putting of both under one title being an afterthought. There is another issue of this edition in which the title reads as below:

MATHER. A Relation | Of the Troubles which have hapned in | New-England, | By reason of the Indians there. | From the Year 1614. to the Year 1675. | Wherein the frequent Conspiracies of the Indians to cutt off the | English, and the wonderfull providence of God, in | disappointing their devices, is declared. | Together with an Historical Discourse concerning the Prevalency of | Prayer; | shewing that New-Englands late deliverance from the Rage of the | Heathen is an eminent Answer of Prayer. | By Increase Mather, | Teacher of a Church in Boston in New-England. | ... | Boston, | Printed and sold by John Foster. 1677. 4to, pp. (6), 76; An Historical Discourse, (4), 19. Boston: Printed ... by T. Green 1714. 12mo, pp. (2), vi, 40.

The running title is: "Let the Will of the Lord be Done." Extremely rare. Mr. Sibley had seen no other copy than Mr. Brinley's. Thomas gives the title differently, probably a half-title.

MATHER. A Sermon Occasioned by the Execution of [James Morgan] a Man found Guilty of Murder: Preached at Boston, in New England, March 11th, 1688⁶ [sic]. This has a copper-plate engraving of the author, which is perhaps the first thing of the kind attempted in New England. The second edition is not known to Mr. Sibley. Very rare.

Sibley quotes a second edition, Boston, 1684, pp. 151, which I have not seen.

MATHER. Hillier ... in London, and for the Book-sellers in Boston, in New-England.* [1712.] 8vo, pp. (2), 36, 10. BA. 46747

This defense is scarcely less rare than the original tract. In the preface Mather gives his reasons for not before admitting his authorship; and mentions an error of the New England printer (corrected, as he says, in the London edition of 1689) who put "Jephilleth" for "Tephilloth." The appendix is dated, Dec. 2, 1712. Its title-page has the imprint: Sold by Several of the Book-sellers in Boston, MDCCXIII. See "A Brief Discourse," No. 46639, supra.

MATHER. Soul-Saving | Gospel Truths. | Deliver'd in several Sermons: | Wherein is shew'd, | 1. The Unreasonableness of those | Excuses which Men make for | their Delaying to come to the |

J.C.B. 46748

The first edition was probably printed in 1703.

MATHER. De | Successu Evangelij | Apud Indos | in | Novâ-Angliâ | Epistola. | Ad Cl. Virum | D. Johannem Leusdenum, | Linguæ Sanctæ in Ultra-|jectinâ Academiâ Pro-|fessore, Scripta. | A Crescentio Mathero | Apud Bostoniensi v.D.M. nec non | Collegij Harvardini quod est Canta-|brigie Nov-Anglorum, Rectore. | Londini, Typis J. G. 1688. 12mo, pp. (2), 13.

In the "Brief Relation of the State of New-England" it is stated that this piece of Mather's had been translated into several of the native American dialects. For an English version, see No. 46699, supra, also included in the "Magnalia," III. 194, and in part in the "Andros Tracts," II. 166. For a German translation, see "Ein Brief," etc., No. 46643, supra. The following contains additional matter :

MATHER. De | Successu Evangelii | Apud | Indos | Occidentales, | In Novâ-Angliâ ; | Epistola. | Ad Cl. Virum | D. Johannem Leusdenum | Linguæ Sanctæ in Ultrajectinâ Acade-|miâ Professore, Scripta, | A Crescentio Mathero. | Apud Bostoniensi v.D.M. nec non Collegij | Harvardini quod est Cantabrigia Nov-An-|glorum, Rectore. | Londini Typis J. G. 1688, | Jam recusua, & successu Evangelii apud In-|dos Orientales aucta. | Ultrajecti, Apud Wilhelmum Broedeleth, Anno 1699. Sm. 8vo, pp. 16. 46750

Field says "This is the third edition, having been printed in London in 1688, and at the same place as this in 1697. Copies of either edition are not easy to procure, but that of 1698 is rarer than the others." A blundering note, which, if it proves anything, proves there are four editions; moreover, he translates Crescentius as Cotton.

MATHER. The | Surest way to the Greatest | Honour : | Discoursed in a Sermon, | Delivered | In the Audience of His Excellency the | Earl of Bellomont, Captain | General and Governour in Chief, | and of the Council, and Repre-|sentatives of the General Assembly | of the Province of Massachusetts-|Bay, Convened at Boston in New-|England, May 31st. 1699. Being | the day for the Election of | Counsellors in that Province. | By Increase Mather. | Boston. Printed by Bartholomew Green, & John Allen, for Samuel Phillips 1699. Sm. 8vo, pp. (8), 42. B.

MATHER. A | Testimony | Against several Prophane and Superstitious | Customs, | Now Practised by some in | New-England, | The Evil whereof is evinced from the | Holy Scriptures,

By Increase Mather | London : Printed in the Year 1687. Sm.
8vo, pp. (8), 41 [i. e. 31].

B., M. 46752

Very rare. Thomas quotes an edition, "With a Preface. Boston : Reprinted from the London Edition. 1688."

MATHER. The Times of men are in the hand | of God. | Or |
A Sermon | Occasioned by that awfull Providence which hapned
in | Boston in New England, the 4th day of the 3^d | Moneth 1675.
(when part of a Vessel was blown up in | the Harbour, and nine men hurt, and three mortally | wounded) wherein is shewed how

awfull | Dispensations. | By Increase Mather | Boston, Printed by John Foster. 1675. 4to, pp. (6), 21.

BA., M. 46753

The second work printed in Boston. Extremely rare.

MATHER. Two Discourses | Shewing, | I. That the Lord's
Ears are | open to the Prayers of the | Righteous. | II. The Dignity & Duty of | Aged Servants of the Lord. | Also, | A Preface in which the | Congregational Discipline of | the Churches in New-
England | is Vindicated, with the Authors | Dying Testimony
there-unto. | By I. Mather, D.D. ... | *Boston in N. E. Printed by B.
Green, | for Daniel Henchman. 1716.* 12mo, pp. (2), ix, 141, (1).

The Preface (pp. ix) is dated July 26, 1716. "Nine and Fifty Years are Lapsed, since I began to Preach the Gospel, in my Youth, in lands afar off ... Since God brought me to Boston, Five and Fifty Years are within a few Weeks expired. What Changes have I lived to see!"

MATHER. Two Plain and Practical | Discourses | Concerning |

land. 1699.* 12mo, pp. 187.

[MATHER.] A | Vindication of New-England, | from the | Vile
Aspersions Cast upon that | Country | By a Late Address of a
Faction there, | Who Denominate themselves | of the | Church of England | in | Boston. | Printed with Allowance. | [n. p. 1688?]
4to, pp. 27.

H., W. 46756

Excessively rare. Probably Increase Mather furnished much of the material for this work, though indirectly. See "Andros Tracts," II. 19-82, and Sibley, No. 44.

MATHER. The Voice of | God, | in | Stormy Winds. | Considered, in Two | Sermons, | Occasioned by the Dreadful and Un-parallel'd Storm, in the European | Nations. Novemb. 27th. 1703. | By Increase Mather. ... | [Followed by:] A | Brief Discourse | Concerning the | Prayse | Due to Gbd, for His Mercy, in giving | Snow like Wool. | Boston in N. E. Printed by T. Green, | for Nicholas Buttolph. 1704. 12mo, pp. 95. B. 46757

In the first tract, the address "To the Reader" contains a brief notice of the attack on Deerfield and the capture of Mr. Williams and his family. The discourse makes frequent allusions to recent events: the great snow of Dec. 1703, and the loss of a Boston ship, in the harbor (p. 8), the storm of April 7th and 8th, 1704, which wrecked the French privateer "designing to do us hurt" (p. 28), the terrible "windy tempest" at Cambridge, in 1682 (pp. 63-4), etc.

MATHER. The Wicked mans Portion. | Or | A Sermon | (Preached at the Lecture in Boston in New England the | 18th day of the 1 Moneth 1674, when two men | were executed, who had murdered | their Master.) | Wherein is shewed | That excesse in wickedness doth bring | untimely Death. | By Increase Mather, Teacher | of a Church of Christ. | ... | Boston, Printed by John Foster. 1675. 4to, pp. (4), 25. w. 46758

Excessively rare. This appears to have been the first work printed in Boston. The preface is dated "15. of 2. Moneth [April 15]. 1675." "The Times of Men," No. 46753, supra, have the same date of imprint, but the preface is dated "9th of 4th Moneth [June 9th] 1675," and the accident which occasioned it occurred May 4th, 1675. There is another issue in which two lines are added to the errata, on the last page (25), and an error in a marginal note on the same page is corrected. For the second impression, see "A Sermon (Preached at the Lecture ...)," No. 46736, supra.

MATHER. Wo to Drunkards. | Two | Sermons | Testifying against the Sin of | Drunkenness: | Wherein the Wofulness of that Evil, and the Misery of all | that are addicted to it, is Discovered from the | Word of God. | By Increase Mather, D.D. | Cambridge, Printed by Marmaduke Johnson, 1673. And sold by Edmund Ranger Bookbinder in Boston. 4to, pp. (4), 35. + The Second Edition. ... Boston, Printed ... by Timothy Green, ... 1712. Sm. 8vo, pp. (4), 58, (1). BA. 46759

The third of Mather's published works. Hebrew type is used in a marginal note, p. 9, and Greek type on p. 3, in the first edition. "Cyder, and a Spirit Extracted out of it, has been much abused to Intemperance. Some observe, that since it has been so, a strange Blast has been upon the fruit Trees, in many Places; so as that some whose Orchards have yielded 500 Barrels of Cyder in a Year, now produce very little. But there is another sort of Strong Drink imported from the Sugar Islands, which has been of all others the most fatal. It is now called Rum, but it once had another name, and a ridiculous one, viz. Kill Devil. Renowned Mr. Wilson said, it should rather have been called, Kill Men for the Devil."

Of this beautiful work there are copies on large paper. The plates of scenery, costume, portraits, etc., are after drawings by Ch. Bodmer. Pages 455-645 relate to North American Indian languages. See No. 47017, infra.

MAXIMILIAN. Voyage dans l'intérieur de l'Amérique du Nord, exécuté pendant les années 1832, 1833 et 1834, par le prince Maximilien de Wied-Neuwied. There are copies with the plates tinted. The errors of the translator were sufficiently numerous to warrant the following:

Caveat emptor is good advice always, especially so in purchasing this work. The original edition of the atlas of plates is one of the most interesting publications ever issued from the press; the details of the costume of the various tribes of Indians, their warlike and musical instruments, smoking apparatus, etc., are given with the utmost minuteness; the bison, dog, scalp, and other dances, with their huntings, are represented in the most spirited manner, and the extraordinary natural features of the country are delineated with the greatest truth, by an artist who accompanied the prince in his travels, and they are exactly reproduced in the brilliantly colored plates of the work, conveying the most vivid and faithful impression of the scenery of the West, between the Mississippi and the Rocky Mountains. The demand for the work overran the supply, and Edward Lumley, a London bookseller, reproduced the plates, without altering the title-page; but the buyer who mistakes this last and inferior issue for the original edition, must not congratulate himself on his own intelligence. It is a matter of regret that the translator omitted the extensive vocabularies contained in the German edition.

The atlas is in folio. There are copies on large vellum paper, with the nineteen vignettes printed on separate leaves; in the ordinary copies they are printed in the text. Vol. II., pp. 302-32, contains an essay on the Brazilian languages, with vocabularies.

This is the original edition of the celebrated voyage of Ferdinand Magellan, a Portuguese navigator, who, being dissatisfied because the King refused to add half-a-crown a month to his pay, entered into the service of the Emperor Charles v. The author was a relation of Christopher Haro, the friend and companion of Magellan, in this voyage "Frater mei Soceri." He sailed from Seville with five ships, August, 1519; discovered and passed the straits to which he gave his name; went by the South Sea to the Islands; and was murdered, for his severity, by his own men, 1520, in the island of Duran, after having conquered that of Cebu. The voyage ended September 6, 1522. Of this original edition I have only been able to trace the existence of two other copies, one of which was purchased in the Lucca sale for £16 16s. For an interesting notice of this rare work, see [Harrisse] "Bib. Am. Vet.," No. 122.

See [Caner (H.)], No. 10681, for the title of the work to which this is a reply.

MAYHEW. A Discourse concerning Unlimited Submission and Non-Resistance to the Higher Powers: with ... Reflections on the Resistance made to King Charles I. and on the Anniversary of his Death; In which the Mysterious Doctrine of that Prince's Saintship and Martyrdom is unriddled: ... delivered ... on the Lord's Day after the 30th of January, 1749-50. ... By Jonathan Mayhew, A.M. ... Boston: Printed by D. Fowle 1750. 8vo, pp. 55. C. + Boston: ... Re-printed by Hall & Goss. 1818. 8vo, pp. 48. B., BA. 47131

A few copies of the 1750 edition were printed in 4to. Also reprinted in Thornton's "Pulpit of the American Revolution," and in Baron's "Pillars of Priestcraft shaken," Vol. II., pp. 259-335. The writer boldly asserts that resistance to tyranny is obedience to God, as well in Church as in State. "He speaks strongly and historically against the Saintship and Martyrdom of Charles, with an irreverent glibness of tongue, akin to the feeling which until recently caused the bells of New Haven in Connecticut to ring a merry peal every year on the 30th of Jan., in honour of the regicides buried there."—STEVENS. MELTON (E.) [Engraved Title:] Edward Meltons | Zee en Land | Reizen | Door | verscheide Gewesten des Werelds. [Printed Title:] Edward Meltons, | Engelsch Edelmanns, | Zeldzaame en Gedenkwaardige | Zee- en Land- | Reizen; | Door | Egypten, West-Indien Aangevangen in den jaare 1660. en geëindigd in den jaare 1677. | Vertaald uit d'eigene Aanteekeningen en Brieven van den gedagten Heer Melton; | en met verscheidene schoone Kopere Figuren versierd. | T'Amsterdam, | By Jan ten Hoorn, Boekverkooper over 't Oude Heeren- | Logement, Anno 1681. 4to, pp. (6), 495, (8). 20 Plates. C. 47472

Who this Melton was, is an unsettled problem. His travels in the West Indies relate partly to the buccaneers. The chapter on New Netherland is made up from Van der Donck and A. Montanus. All the natural productions of the country are described, and the names given in the Indian dialects of Guyana, with occasional observations on the pronunciation of the words. The map is reversed, the south being at the head of the page, and the north at the foot, with west on the right, and east on the left. The text is in Friesic Dutch, to which the author calls particular attention in the preface. Several of the plates are by the celebrated Jan Luiken, and are among his best productions; one of them is a view of the Cohoes Falls in the Mohawk river. See Asher's "Essay," Nos. 16 and 17, also F. Muller's catalogue.

This second edition is a reproduction of the first, with the addition of a new preface. Some copies have the imprint: By Jan ten Hoorn, Boekverkooper over 't Oude Heeren-Logement. 1702.

1705. 4to, pp. 96. C. 47474

This is a reprint of the second part of No. 47472 (pp. 121-225), with several cleverly drawn plates; those on New Netherland are copied from D. P. de Vries. T. W. Field expresses himself in an ex cathedra and somewhat clumsy style as to the rarity of the work; he would have done well to quote from Frederic Muller, who is an authority, and from whose catalogue he obtained his information. The very curious history of this "mémoire" deserves special attention. At the surrender of Fort Necessity by Washington, his Journal of the Expedition, together with the letters of Braddock to the British Ministry, and his instructions to Washington, were seized by the French victors. They were immediately transmitted to France, and by order of the French king, printed and sent to every court of Europe, as indicating the aggressive character of the British. From evidence drawn from these documents, they charge Washington with the murder of Jumonville. This "mémoire" proves that Jumonville was approaching Washington on an embassy of peace, but that Washington, unwilling to trust him, had ordered his advance to be fired upon. It includes a translation of the "Journal of Major George Washington" (pp. 73-100), printed in 1754. It was of so much consequence that no less than five editions of a translation were published; for one of them, see "The Conduct of the late Ministry," our Vol. iv., No. 15205, which was reproduced as "The Mystery Revealed." The American editions are entitled:

A Memorial containing A Summary View of Facts, with their Authorities. In Answer to The Observations Sent by the English Ministry to The Courts of Europe. Translated from the French. Philadelphia: Printed by James Chatten. 1757. 8vo, pp. iv, 338. + New York: J. Parker ... 1757. 8vo, pp. iv, 190. B. + New York: Printed ... by Hugh Gaine. 1757. 8vo, pp. iv, 190. C., H. 47512

The Philadelphia edition is in larger type than the New York editions, and has a half-title which reads: "Memorial and Papers concerning the Expedition to the Ohio, containing General Braddock's Register, Journals of Major Washington, M. de Villiers," etc. The work was reprinted in the second volume of Craig's "Olden Time," and is appended to the Dublin edition of [Livingston's] "Review," see our Vol. x., No. 41650. Some of the papers are re-translations from the French.
